

Jeff Goodman

Named

RISMedia

2020 Newsmaker
Trendsetter

For the second year in a row, RISMedia has named Jeff Goodman as a Real Estate Newsmaker. RISMedia selected Jeff for building upon his “Rediscovering New York” walking tours with the launch of his live radio show and podcast.

Also called “Rediscovering New York,” every week Jeff takes his listeners on a radio/podcast journey to a specific New York neighborhood, exploring its history and its present vibe: what makes that neighborhood special. And he does it through interviews: with historians, local business owners, non-profit organizations, preservationists, local artists, and the occasional elected official. Jeff has a monthly radio audience of thousands of listeners, with thousands more downloading his podcasts on iTunes, Spotify, Soundcloud, Stitcher and other services.

RISMedia also recognized Jeff for his on-air commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the Stonewall uprising. It aired in three parts and included interviews with people who were present at the protests, as well as writers, poets, artists, and one of the founders of the world’s pre-eminent museum of LGBTQ art, which is located in SOHO.
