

10-YEAR MARKET REPORT

MANHATTAN APARTMENTS

2003-2012

We are pleased to present the most comprehensive report available on the Manhattan apartment market over the past ten years. Over 145,000 verified sales are included, a number of which were recorded after our quarterly market reports were released. We have also provided a summary of relevant economic indicators over the past decade, including data on employment, Wall Street, building permits and interest rates.

Highlights of the report include:

- Manhattan apartment sales rose 12% in 2012 to their highest level since the collapse of Lehman Brothers.
- The average price rose 6% in 2012 to $1,455,797, fueled by a surge in high-end closings at the end of the year. This figure is now just 5% shy of the record level of 2008.
- Co-ops (+7%) and condos (+6%) saw similar gains in average price during 2012.
- Over the past ten years, the average price of a Manhattan apartment rose 111%, while the median was 92% higher.
- Condos posted a higher increase in average price during the past 10 years than co-ops.
- Downtown (+135%) posted the largest increase in the average price for all apartments over past ten years, followed by Midtown West (+116%) and the East Side (+113%).
- Co-ops accounted for 56% of apartment sales last year, their highest percentage of sales since 2005.
